

FOREIGN POLICY/CURRENT IMMIGRATION DEAL

1. Relative to yourself, where would you place President Biden on the following issues?

	Far more liberal than me	Somewhat more liberal than me	Close to my views	Somewhat more conservative than me	Far more conservative than me
National security and foreign policy	38%	14%	32%	10%	6%
Immigration	42%	14%	25%	12%	6%
The border	43%	12%	28%	11%	6%
Asylum seekers	40%	14%	29%	11%	5%
Israel and Palestine	29%	18%	30%	12%	11%

2. Relative to yourself, where would you place Donald Trump on the following issues?

	Far more liberal than me	Somewhat more liberal than me	Close to my views	Somewhat more conservative than me	Far more conservative than me
National security and foreign policy	6%	7%	43%	13%	32%
Immigration	4%	5%	44%	10%	36%
The border	4%	7%	44%	10%	36%
Asylum seekers	6%	6%	43%	10%	35%
Israel and Palestine	6%	8%	41%	13%	31%

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

3. When it comes to refugees and asylum seekers should the United States take in...

More refugees and asylum seekers	17%
About the same amount of refugees and asylum seekers as now	32%
Fewer refugees and asylum seekers	52%

4. When it comes to the rules on who is granted refugee or asylum status in the United States, should these rules generally be...

Stricter	53%
About the same as now	33%
Looser	14%

5. When it comes to the rising number of border crossings into the United States, which approach comes closest to your preference?

Increase legal pathways to immigrate to the United States	39%
Increase border enforcement and make asylum and refugee policies stricter	61%

6. When it comes to the rising number of border crossings into the United States, which approach comes closest to your preference?

Increase legal pathways to immigrate to the United States	20%
Secure the border and limit illegal entry, but also increase pathways to legally enter the United States	45%
Increase border enforcement and make asylum and refugee policies stricter	36%

7. Congress is considering a bipartisan deal that would pair immediate aid to Ukraine and Israel with border security funding and stricter asylum standards for entering into the United States. Do you support or oppose this deal?

Strongly support	17%
Somewhat support	33%

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

Somewhat oppose	15%
Strongly oppose	19%
Don't know	16%

8. Democrats say that aid to Ukraine and Israel should not be attached to border security funding and changes to asylum standards. Republicans say they won't support any aid to Ukraine and Israel without addressing the border. Which approach would you prefer?

Pass aid to Ukraine and Israel immediately and then address the border later	45%
Combine aid to Ukraine and Israel with addressing the border even if it means the aid is delayed or canceled altogether	55%

9. When it comes to the current conflict in Israel and Gaza, which approach comes closest to your preference?

The United States should stand with Israel as it responds to the October 7 attack and conducts military operations to eliminate Hamas in Gaza and rescue hostages, including by providing military aid and public diplomatic support.	56%
The United States should pressure Israel to stop its military operations, call for a permanent ceasefire, and provide humanitarian aid in Gaza to prevent any more loss of life on either side.	44%

10. When it comes to the current conflict in Israel and Gaza, which approach comes closest to your preference?

*Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4*

The United States should stand with Israel as it responds to the October 7 attack and conducts military operations to eliminate Hamas in Gaza and rescue hostages, including by providing military aid and public diplomatic support.	33%
The United States should support Israel's right to defend itself by providing military aid, but also pressure Israel to avoid civilian casualties and negotiate a deal to stop the fighting and return the hostages.	36%
The United States should pressure Israel to stop its military operations, call for a permanent ceasefire, and provide humanitarian aid in Gaza to prevent any more loss of life on either side.	30%

BIDENPLOMACY TEST

- 11. President Biden has dealt with several major foreign policy issues while in office. Below are some descriptions of how Biden chooses to approach these issues. Select which you believe best describes Biden's approach and which you prefer the most:

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

Biden Foreign Policy Approach: Describes well vs. Doesn't Describe well	Describe s well	Doesn't describe well
[VALUES] President Biden conducts foreign policy around a consistent set of values, because “every day, we must summon the strength to stand for what is right, to stand for what is true, to stand for freedom, to stand together.” Biden has said that “American leadership is what holds the world together. American alliances are what keep us, America, safe. American values are what make us a partner that other nations want to work with” and that America must stand with “people who are today fighting for the same things we fought for 250 years ago: freedom, independence, self-determination.” Biden believes that “the defense of freedom is not the work of a day or a year. It’s the calling of our lifetime, of all time.”	57%	43%
[PEACE] President Biden’s foreign policy is based on the pursuit of peace above all else. Biden has said that “history has taught us that when terrorists don’t pay a price for their terror, when dictators don’t pay a price for their aggression, they cause more chaos and death and more destruction” but that “we cannot give up on peace.” Biden’s belief is that even “at a moment of war and peril, a moment of competition and uncertainty, I also see a moment of unprecedented opportunity to make real strides toward a world of greater peace and greater prosperity, liberty and dignity, equal justice under the law, human rights and fundamental freedoms which are the blessing and birthright of all of humanity.”	56%	44%

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

[ISOLATIONIST] President Biden is keeping America out of foreign wars and bringing our troops back home. Biden has said that we need to “we’ve been a nation too long at war. If you’re 20 years old today, you have never known an America at peace.” Biden has said we must achieve our goals “not through endless military deployments, but through diplomacy, economic tools, and rallying the rest of the world for support.” Biden believes that this approach will “pay dividends for American security for generations, help us keep American troops out of harm’s way, help us build a world that is safer, more peaceful, and more prosperous for our children and grandchildren.”	56%	43%
--	------------	------------

[INTERESTS] Biden’s approach to foreign policy is to advance American interests around the world. Biden has said that “we have to come together to protect the rights and freedoms that underwrite the flow of ideas and commerce and which have enabled decades of global growth... freedom of navigation and overflight, keeping our shared seas and skies open so that every nation has equal access to our global common space.” Biden’s approach to foreign policy is to “address the needs of today in this interconnected world— a world where climate disasters, pandemics, conflicts spill over borders and make it harder to address the challenges of poverty and instability that hold so many people back.”	63%	38%
--	------------	------------

[PRIORITIES] President Biden has been clear that some foreign policy just has to be prioritized, even when it’s difficult. Biden has said that “at the most fundamental level, we face a choice: a choice between a world defined by coercion and exploitation, where might makes right, or a world where we recognize that our own success is bound to the success of others.” Biden believes that “we have to remember who we are. We are the United States of America. And there is nothing beyond our capacity if we do it together” because advancing American priorities leads to “more predictable markets, more employment, less rage, less grievances, less war.”	59%	41%
--	------------	------------

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

Biden Foreign Policy Approach: Support vs. Oppose	Support	Oppose
[VALUES] President Biden conducts foreign policy around a consistent set of values, because “every day, we must summon the strength to stand for what is right, to stand for what is true, to stand for freedom, to stand together.” Biden has said that “American leadership is what holds the world together. American alliances are what keep us, America, safe. American values are what make us a partner that other nations want to work with” and that America must stand with “people who are today fighting for the same things we fought for 250 years ago: freedom, independence, self-determination.” Biden believes that “the defense of freedom is not the work of a day or a year. It’s the calling of our lifetime, of all time.”	60%	40%
[PEACE] President Biden’s foreign policy is based on the pursuit of peace above all else. Biden has said that “history has taught us that when terrorists don’t pay a price for their terror, when dictators don’t pay a price for their aggression, they cause more chaos and death and more destruction” but that “we cannot give up on peace.” Biden’s belief is that even “at a moment of war and peril, a moment of competition and uncertainty, I also see a moment of unprecedented opportunity to make real strides toward a world of greater peace and greater prosperity, liberty and dignity, equal justice under the law, human rights and fundamental freedoms which are the blessing and birthright of all of humanity.”	61%	39%
[ISOLATIONIST] President Biden is keeping America out of foreign wars and bringing our troops back home. Biden has said that we need to “we’ve been a nation too long at war. If you’re 20 years old today, you have never known an America at peace.” Biden has said we must achieve our goals “not through endless military deployments, but through diplomacy, economic tools, and rallying the rest of the world for support.” Biden believes that this approach will “pay dividends for American security for generations, help us keep American troops out of harm’s way, help us build a world that is safer, more peaceful, and more prosperous for our children and grandchildren.”	58%	41%

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

[INTERESTS] Biden’s approach to foreign policy is to advance American interests around the world. Biden has said that “we have to come together to protect the rights and freedoms that underwrite the flow of ideas and commerce and which have enabled decades of global growth... freedom of navigation and overflight, keeping our shared seas and skies open so that every nation has equal access to our global common space.” Biden’s approach to foreign policy is to “address the needs of today in this interconnected world—a world where climate disasters, pandemics, conflicts spill over borders and make it harder to address the challenges of poverty and instability that hold so many people back.”	56%	45%
---	-----	-----

[PRIORITIES] President Biden has been clear that some foreign policy just has to be prioritized, even when it’s difficult. Biden has said that “at the most fundamental level, we face a choice: a choice between a world defined by coercion and exploitation, where might makes right, or a world where we recognize that our own success is bound to the success of others.” Biden believes that “we have to remember who we are. We are the United States of America. And there is nothing beyond our capacity if we do it together” because advancing American priorities leads to “more predictable markets, more employment, less rage, less grievances, less war.”	61%	39%
--	-----	-----

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

12. Below are some of President Biden’s first-term foreign policy accomplishments.
 For each, say whether you have heard of the policy and whether you approve of it:

Foreign Policy Accomplishments: Heard vs. Have not heard	Heard	Have not heard
Withdrawing United States troops from Afghanistan	80%	21%
Sending aid to Ukraine to defend itself	86%	15%
Sending aid to Israel to defend itself	79%	20%
Brokering a temporary ceasefire and hostage release deal between Israel and Hamas	79%	21%
Ending the policy of drone strikes outside of war zones	43%	57%
Rejoining the Paris Climate Accords	73%	27%
Rejoining the World Health Organization	70%	29%
Strengthening the NATO alliance with Europe	65%	35%
Strengthening the Quad alliance with Japan, Australia, and India	48%	52%
Putting trade restrictions on China	59%	41%
Launching new trade deal negotiations	52%	48%
Promoting US industry over foreign competitors	58%	42%
Keeping US troops out of new conflicts	61%	40%

Blueprint/YouGov Topline
1012 Registered Voters, December 2 - December 5, 2023
Percentages may not sum to 100 due to rounding. MOE ±3.4

Foreign Policy Accomplishments: Support vs. Oppose	Support	Oppose
Withdrawing United States troops from Afghanistan	64%	37%
Sending aid to Ukraine to defend itself	64%	37%
Sending aid to Israel to defend itself	64%	35%
Brokering a temporary ceasefire and hostage release deal between Israel and Hamas	73%	27%
Ending the policy of drone strikes outside of war zones	67%	33%
Rejoining the Paris Climate Accords	56%	44%
Rejoining the World Health Organization	57%	42%
Strengthening the NATO alliance with Europe	73%	27%
Strengthening the Quad alliance with Japan, Australia, and India	78%	22%
Putting trade restrictions on China	79%	21%
Launching new trade deal negotiations	73%	27%
Promoting US industry over foreign competitors	85%	15%
Keeping US troops out of new conflicts	81%	20%